

Donated to the Raymond & District Historical Society - Museum by Elene Johnson

School Song

KNIGHT ACADEMY, RAYMOND, ALTA.

WORDS BY
O. F. URSENBACH
MUSIC BY
N. LORENZO MITCHELL

PRICE 40 CENTS

Adopted by the Faculty and Student-body of 1915-16

Printed for the Composer by WHALEY, ROYCE & CO., Limited
WINNIPEG TORONTO

Owned by Elsie Mary (Clark) Jague who attended the Knight Academy.

ALL HAIL! THE PURPLE AND THE GOLD

Knight Academy School Song

Words by O. F. Ursenbach

Music by N. Lorenzo Mitchell

Allegro

PIANO mf

Allegro moderato

1. All hail dear Knight A - cad - em - y, Our hope, our love of youth. The
2. The Pur - ple stands for well spent time, Suc - cess in wars un-fought, While
3. Then sing for the A - cad - em - y, The Pur - ple and the Gold, 'Till gems you teach lead all to see Pro-gress-ive lights of truth. The Gold, the true and gen-u-ine Means pi-o-neers in thought Both oth-er minds a-mazed will see The light with-in our fold. Come bea-con is be-fore us See, it beck-ons us to come. So join in firm en-deav-or To re-veal some un-known truth. So one and all, don't tar-ry long, But join our mer-ry shout, Let haste and joins the chor-us And well make the old school hum. come, we'll fal-ter nev-er In this lex-i-con of youth. Forvoi-ces praise in joy-ful song The dear-est school that's out.

mf

4

CHORUS

we're the stu - dents of the Knight A - cad - em - y, A - cad - em - y, We dare the right like knights of old. Armed with the truth, our ban - ner floats for vic - to - ry, All hail the Pur - ple and the Gold.